

REVISED PROGRAMME

DAY TWO - FRIDAY, 5 SEPTEMBER

8.00am	Registration desk open
Session 5 9.00am - 10.00am	Keynote Presentation Todd Temkin (Auditorium 1) Urban activist and champion of the role of culture in urban waterfront development President, Valparaiso Foundation, Valparaiso, Chile “When the City Becomes Your Way of Life”: Administering the city of Valparaiso as a UNESCO World Heritage Site
10.00am - 10.30am	Morning Tea
Session 6	Place Identity/ Local Distinctiveness (Auditorium 1)	Design Solutions for global warming Re-thinking Resources for Liveable Cities (Auditorium 2)	Best Practice Bazaar – test run radical ideas (Room 1B)
10.30am - 11.00am	Rampant Residential Modernism Gillian Davies, Professor/ Director of Studies (ex) SCAD USA	Subtropical Queensland: Climatic Diversity and Appropriate Design Responses Anir Upadhyay, Freelance Architect/ Urban Planner	The Genealogy of Urban Form: Central Brisbane Case Study Paul Sanders, Senior Lecturer Queensland University of Technology and Naomi Schroder
11.00am - 11.30am	Rochedale Estates: Raising the Bar on Residential Community Development Matthew Bolton, Senior Urban Designer; Conics	The Role of Advanced Glazing in Combating Subtropical Residential Carbon Emissions from Air Conditioners Wendy Miller, Senior Research Fellow Queensland University of Technology	Reformulating Urban Landscapes: Figure-ground Maps Cesar Torres Bustamante, Postgraduate Student, RMIT University
11.30am - 12.00pm	Subtropical Successes for Envirodevelopment Kirsty Chessher, EnviroDevelopment - Business Development Manager, Tanya Plant, Manager, Strategic Policy & Brian Stewart Chief Executive and General Counsel, UDIA	Samford House: Taking the Long Term View on a Suburban Block Chris Bligh, Principal, Bligh Graham Architects	Echoes or Whispers: Voices in the Interior Subtropical Debate Dr Dianne Smith, Senior Lecturer, Queensland University of Technology
12pm - 1.30pm	Lunch

REVISED PROGRAMME

DAY TWO - FRIDAY, 5 SEPTEMBER (cont...)

Session 7	Local Distinctiveness - Creative Culture (Auditorium 1)	Design Solutions for global warming Re-thinking Resources for Liveable Cities (Auditorium 2)	Best Practice Bazaar (Room 1B)
1.30pm - 2.00pm	Sustainable Art in the Park - an Ideal Subtropical Museum Model Bud Brannigan, Architect, Bud Brannigan Architects	Promoting Sustainable Urban Development in Fast-growing City-Regions: Practices for Kuala Lumpur and Hong Kong Suharto Teriman, PhD Researcher, Dr Tan Yigitcanlar, Lecturer and Dr Severine Mayere, Lecturer, Queensland University of Technology	Interstitial Spaces: Conceptualising Public Art in the Subtropical City Richard Brecknock, Director and Beth Jackson, Manager, Curatorial Unit, Brecknock Consulting
2.00pm - 2.30pm	Is there an Art to Subtropical Cities? John Montgomery, Urban Cultures, Kingscliffe and Malcolm Snow, CEO, Southbank Corporation	The Subtropical City Park - Changing Roles for Changing Times Amalie Wright, Associate Director - Design EDAW and winner of the 2007 mecu Travel Bursary	The Distinctive Role of the Modern Stadium in a Sub Tropical City and Its Contribution As a Model of Environmentally Sustainable Design Alastair Richardson, Principal, HOK Sport Architecture
2.30pm - 3.00pm		Climate, Energy and Equity in the Subtropical Linear Coastal City Assoc Prof Peter Skinner, Reader in Architecture School of Geography, Planning and Architecture University of Queensland
3.00pm - 3.30pm	Afternoon Tea
Session 8 3.30pm - 4.30pm	Keynote Presentation Fred Kent (Auditorium 1) Project for Public Spaces President, Project for Public Spaces, New York City
4.30pm - 5.00pm	Panel Discussion: Subtropical Urbanism in 20-20 (and Beyond) (Auditorium 1) Herbert Dreiseitl, Fred Kent, Todd Temkin and Professor Janis Birkeland Convenor: Peter Richards, Deicke Richards and Acting Chair Centre for Subtropical Design Board
5.00pm - 5.45pm	Plenary (Auditorium 1) Professor Helen Armstrong, Conference Chair
5.45pm - 6.00pm	Conference Close
POST CONFERENCE - SATURDAY, 6 SEPTEMBER
10.00am	Guided Tour: PlaceMakers Exhibition 'Place Makers: Contemporary Queensland Architects Gallery of Modern Art. Bookings required.		